Y.O. RANCH STEAKHOUSE

Branded with the name of a "famous" Kerrville ranch, this "upscale" West End steakhouse is "the place to go for game" (buffalo, elk, quail), prime cuts of beef and other "creative cowboy" dishes served in a "nostalgic, chuck wagon" setting decorated with artifacts from its namesake inspiration; prices are comparable to other cow palaces making it a concierge's choice for conventiongoers and other "tourists"; N.B. patio seating was recently added.
